MARYSVILLE POLICE CHIEF CHRIS SACHS STANDS IN SOLIDARITY WITH NATIONAL POLICE OFFICERS WEEK
JOINS UPCOMING CEREMONIES

Marysville, CA – As the nation observes National Police Officers Week, Chief Christian Sachs of the Marysville Police Department extends his unwavering support and appreciation for the dedicated men and women who serve the community of Marysville with courage, integrity, and selflessness.

National Police Officers Week, which runs from May 12th to May 18th, is a time to honor and remember law enforcement officers who have made the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty. It is also an opportunity to express gratitude to those who continue to protect and serve our communities day in and day out.

Please join Chief Sachs and other local law enforcement leaders and supporters for the Peace Officer Memorial Ceremony:

Police Department

Chief Sachs acknowledges the challenges and risks that law enforcement officers face every day as they work tirelessly to maintain public safety and uphold the rule of law. He emphasizes the importance of recognizing their contributions and sacrifices, not just during this designated week, but throughout the year.

"National Police Officers Week serves as a poignant reminder of the bravery and dedication exhibited by Marysville's law enforcement officers," Chief Sachs said. "It is a time for us to come together as a community and express our profound gratitude for their service and sacrifice."

Chief Sachs encourages the residents of Marysville to join him in expressing gratitude to the men and women of law enforcement who put their lives on the line to keep our communities safe. He urges everyone to take a moment to reflect on the sacrifices made by these brave individuals and to show support for their dedication and service.

As National Police Officers Week unfolds, Chief Sachs reaffirms his commitment to fostering positive relationships between law enforcement and the community they serve. He emphasizes the importance of collaboration and mutual respect in achieving the shared goal of a safer, stronger Marysville.
